Every day you see people dragging around with them the corpse of their sins. They can't get away from them. And many of them have become so intimate with these corpses that they become corpses themselves. The misery of these poor unfortunates has become constitutional with them. It fits them like an old shoe. They have become accustomed to it.

And there are thousands of hum who are walking the earth today with corpses attached to them—dyspectic stomachs they can't get rid of. They have to get along the best they can with the stomachs they have. And the owners of said dyspeptic stomachs are to be found in every walk in life, suffering from some form of indigestion, first cou-

They want that forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests thom, and they interest no one, their faces are sarunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag. Are you one of the myrlads who dandle and gratify their palates at the sacrifice of their stomachs? Are you one of those who allow their senses to run riot, eating too much, drinking too much, cating at the wrong time, eating the half-cooked, the queer and the impossible?

Are you bloated after eating and imagine that it is your food that fills you? Do you have nausea when you look upon this or that, rebel at one thing and be hungry for it, too, at the same time? And have you got a whole lot of other things the matter with your stomach that you know about but nobody clse does, and can't explain? If so, you have dyspepsia, real dyspepsia, And, the chances are you have had it a long time. Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it your stomach take a rest.
